

TWO TEACHERS RESIGN; FILL TWO POSITIONS

Resignations of two teachers were accepted and two teaching positions were filled at the January meeting of the joint school committee of the Gettysburg Joint School Board Monday evening at the new high school building.

The resignations of Herbert G. Raab, as a mathematics teacher at the high school, and John R. Fullerton, a guidance counsellor there, were accepted. Mr. Fullerton has accepted another position and Mr. Raab's resignation was due to illness in his family.

Barry W. Light, Palmyra, Pa., who will graduate this month from Lebanon Valley College, was elected to Raab's position at the rate of $4,000 per year. He is certified to teach math.

LEAVE GRANTED

After the board granted a sabbatical leave for the second semester to Mrs. Dorothy M. Dutera, a teacher at the Meade School, for health reasons, Ethel Crouse, a Gettysburg College Senior, was elected to serve in Mrs. Dutera's place. Miss Crouse has been doing student teaching in the local schools. She will be paid at the rate of $4,000 per year.

The elections followed recommendations of the teacher and curriculum committee as did the action on the resignations and the sabbatical leave. The board adopted another teacher committee recommendation by adding $100 to the salary of Clifford B. Snowberger, junior high school principal. The action brings his salary to $8,300, the same as that being paid the senior high school principal.

DISCUSS NEW POSITION

The board discussed briefly a suggestion that the position of assistant senior high school principal be created but referred it to the teacher and curriculum committee for study and recommendation.

The directors also added these names to the list of approved substitute teachers: Mrs. Carolyn B. Wagaman, Emmitsburg R. 1; Mrs. Patricia E. Moore, 625 Highland Ave.; Mrs. Susan B. Hudson and Mrs. Charles Dietzel, no addresses given.

2ND PHYSICAL ED TEACHER

Miss Joanne C. Snyder, a junior high school teacher, was elected treasurer of the junior high school activities account at an annual salary of $100.

The directors also adopted a teacher committee recommendation that a 16-year-old pupil be excused from attendance at public school because he is "unable to profit from further attendance."

HUTCHISON IS RE-ELECTED BY AUTHORITY BD.

Arthur E. Hutchison, who has headed the Gettysburg School Authority Board since it was formed a dozen years ago, was re-elected for another term as its chairman at the annual reorganization session held Monday evening at the high school building.

Charles S. Black was elected as the vice chairman to succeed Charles H. Bender who declined re-appointment for another term.

Ralph W. Guise was re-elected treasurer and Dr. Lloyd C. Keefauver was chosen secretary for another year.

The board members announced they will meet Saturday morning at the new Gettysburg Area High School building to make an inspection of the building prior to final acceptance.

REDEEM SIX BONDS

At the session Monday evening the board approved the redemption of six $1,000 bonds of the first 1950 issue before maturity at 93 1/2 which is 6 1/2 points below par. That bond issue covered the cafeteria-shop addition to the old high school building and was issued in 1950 for a total of $210,000. Up to the end of 1962, the authority had paid off $88,000 of that issue, $33,000 of it in bonds called in prior to maturity.

A recent audit showed that the $75,000 bond issue sold in November, 1953, to provide funds for the high school stood at $623,000 last October 31. Of the bonds redeemed to date from that issue, $27,000 were called in before redemption date.

Authority members said they find it difficult to locate bond holders willing to release their bonds before maturity.

Scranton Is Installed As Governor Of Pennsylvania

By RICHARD L. GRAVES

HARRISBURG (AP) — William Warren Scranton became Pennsylvania's 103rd chief executive today with a fervent plea for unity toward progress.

"Our Commonwealth has the resources, the human strength, the get-up-and-go from which greatness is made," the 45-year-old governor declared in a brief speech minutes after he took the oath of office.

His inauguration continued a direct line of administration that began with the proprietary governorship of William Penn in 1681 and continued through the Committee of Safety in the Revolutionary War, headed by Benjamin Franklin. Scranton was the 38th man elected under constitutional law.

WORK TO DO

Scranton succeeded Gov. David L. Lawrence. In so doing he ended eight years of Democratic control of the administration. Lawrence planned to fly to his home in Pittsburgh following the inauguration ceremonies.

"There is work to do, lots of it, but Pennsylvanians have never shirked from that prospect," Scranton declared, adding:

"In both the executive branch and in the legislature, all of us must vow today to do our part to bring about a new era in Pennsylvania progress. We must have the wisdom to keep what should be kept; the courage to change what should be changed."

STALKED BY DESPAIR

The new governor invoked the name of Penn in the preamble of his address:

"Be believed in himself . . . he

POLICE ARREST YOUTH SOUGHT IN CAR THEFTS

Clothing stolen Christmas Day from the Abbottstown Clothing Store has been recovered in McDowell, Va., by Virginia State Police, and a third member of the gang was arrested, state police at York had never been completed on it.

The board voted to re-employ Mrs. Jean S. Lobaugh as a Fourth Grade teacher at York Springs.

She had resigned some time ago for health reasons. They also elected Lloyd Wagner, Dillsburg, as a substitute art teacher.

High School Principal Alfred Bilett reported on the progress made to date in preparations for the first evaluation of the school by the Middle District Association and John R. Korver, the high school librarian, followed with a report on the status of the high school library and recommended steps to be taken to bring it up to date.

At the time of the arrest of the Hamilton brothers, the third member of the trio, a 16-year-old boy, was still at large and believed by state police and local Adams County police to be in Virginia.

He was apprehended Saturday, according to Sgt. Joseph Tappe, of the York substation of the state police, former commandant of the state police here.

MANY THEFTS

Sgt. Tappe said the youths were involved in the larceny of at least 17 motor vehicles. Involved in the search for the trio were state police in Lancaster, Gettysburg, York, Maryland and Virginia; borough police from Abbottstown, East Berlin, Littlestown, Hanover, York, Spring Grove and West Manchester Twp.

The arrest of the youth was made by Spring Grove Officer Earl Brown and West Manchester Twp. Patrolman Charles Geiselman.

Five of the car thefts occurred in the East Berlin area between

The members of the Gettysburg Photographic Society meeting Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stine, 9 Baltimore St., had a difficult time in judging the 16 colored slides entered in the competition.

Their ultimate decision was that two of the slides were tied for first place and three for second place.

The first place tie was between a scene of autumn foliage made by Dr. Charles A. Sloat and an overflowing spring by Edward Stine.

Tied for second place were a picture of an earthenware vessel and an overflowing spring by Edward Stine, a picture of an old mill and a waterfall by Maurice Stoops and a picture of autumn leaves.

FEAR CHINESE MAY RENEW BORDER WAR

By HENRY S. BRADSHER
NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Reports that Red China has rejected a six-nation truce proposal gave rise today to some Indian fears that the Chinese will renew the Himalayan border war.

Informed sources said earlier reports that the Chinese favored the truce package proposed by the nonaligned nations were deceptive. They said they have learned that Peking in fact turned down the plan.

Coinciding with the New Delhi reports, a Peking broadcast said "events of the past few days show that there is no ground for optimism" for a negotiated settlement of the conflict which the Chinese sopped with a cease-fire proclamation Nov. 22 after making big gains.

WON'T PULL BACK

Quoting the Communist newspaper Ta Kung Pao, the broadcast said that New Delhi's reaction to the neutrals plan "can only give rise to anxiety." It said that India was demanding "unilateral withdrawal by China while itself, instead of withdrawing, will once again move forward and reoccupy China's territory."

Informed sources said the Chinese apparently refuse to pull back in Ladakh, on the northwest front, where they hold about 14,000 square miles of disputed territory, including some 2,000 square miles gained in their October-November drive.

The neutrals' plan is said to provide for a Chinese pullback of 12 miles in Ladakh and for both sides to establish civil police posts at mutually acceptable points in a buffer zone.

The six nations which drew up the plan are Ceylon, Burma, Cambodia, Indonesia, Ghana and the United Arab Republic.

Transportation System Struck

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia's vast transit system of buses, trolley cars and subway trains was shut down by a strike today. But people got to work on crowded trains, packed automobiles and taxicabs, bicycles and old-fashioned hoofing.

Some 5,000 members of the Transport Workers Union AFL-CIO walked out at 12:01 a.m. in a dispute with the Philadelphia Transportation Co. over wages and a controversial lay-off clause.

Police and residents of this fourth largest city in the nation, however, took the strike with outward calm. Apparently they are conditioned to such discomfort by 13 such walkouts since 1955.

Police reported no major traffic snarls as people who normally use PTC facilities turned to automobiles as means of travel.

ROBBERS GET $10,000 LOOT

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Three masked bandits, brandishing pistols and tear gas guns, held up branch of the Mellon National Bank on the city's Southside Monday and fled with more than $10,000.

"The first thing I was aware of was a bursting open of the doors," said bank manager William Foulis. "One of the men hollered 'hold-up.' He covered me with a gun and warned me away from my desk.

"Then, what I thought was a woman dressed as a man went behind the cages and took the money. Both men waited until she was out the door. Then they fired the tear gas and followed her out."

There were 10 employees and five customers in the bank when the trio of Negroes struck. Several of the witnesses backed up Foulis' claim that one of the bandits was a woman although others weren't sure, police said.

More than 25 police vehicles converged on the area and blocked the main throughfares from the area. But the trio apparently escaped the dragnet.

The hold-up was the second at a Mellon Bank in recent weeks. Last month, a lone bandit held up a branch on the city's Northside and fled with about $14,300.

WORKING ON DOCK STRIKE

NEW YORK (AP) — Federal mediators resume efforts today to settle the 24-day-old dock strike on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

There was no plan, however, for a joint meeting of representatives of the striking longshoremen and the industry.

James J. Reynolds, assistant secretary of labor, said: "I see no purpose in having one immediately. Their positions are unchanged and there has been no real progress."

The contract deadlock is between the AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) and the New York Shipping Association, which represents 145 shipping and stevedoring companies. Contract terms reached between the two groups here traditionally set a pattern for settlements in other ports. Wages are a major issue.

Tshombe Quits Insurrection; Embraces U.N.

By ROBIN P. ANNICK

LEOPOLDIVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Katanga President Moise Tshombe capitulated today. He said he is ready to end Katanga's secession, cooperate loyally with the United Nations and let U.N. troops rove where they will throughout the province.

From his war capital in Kolwezi, Tshombe appealed to Premier Cyrille Adoula's central Congo government for amnesty for himself and all his followers within their 30 months of independence.

Bitterness of the long fight, however, was reflected in a riot of Congolese youths against the British Embassy in Leopoldville. SACK EMBASSY

About 1,000 Africans, with a core of 200 university students, sacked the embassy in protest against alleged British support for Tshombe and Katanga's secession. They smashed windows. Files were stripped and hurled into the street.

Robert K. A. Gardner of Ghana, chief of U.N. operations in the Congo, intervened personally to stop it, when Congolese police failed to take a hand. British Ambassador Derek Riches protested strongly to the Congolese Foreign Ministry. Riches said some members of his staff were injured.

Tshombe's declaration was relayed by the South African Press Association and Rene Thierry, a Belgian radio correspondent.

"We are ready to declare to the world that the Katangan secession is over," Tshombe said. "We are prepared to give the United Nations freedom of movement throughout Katanga."

Tshombe said he is prepared to return to Elisabethville "to settle the modalities of the application" of U.N. Secretary-General U Thant's plan for Congo unification. Modalities means methods for the discharge of an obligation.

Mrs. Baird wore a black taffeta gown with lace bodice and a cape of black plush and monkey fur. Her muff was plush and her gloves were magenta.

The men's costumes were authentic of the period with long suit coats, capes or greatcoats and silk top hats. The highly popular spots of the period completed the outfit.

TWO TEACHERS

Elementary Coordinator Richard Folkenroth told the directors that the second elementary physical education teacher will start her duties in the second semester which will again make it possible for all elementary pupils to get regular physical education instruction.

TO BUY LOCKERS

It was decided that President Oren H. Wilson shall appoint a legislative councilor from the joint school district to serve with similar representatives in recommending and expediting school legislation at the state and local levels.

Superintendent H. Edgar Riegler reported to the directors that the solicitor for the board and the authority is going through "legal and technical procedures" preliminary to final acceptance of the new school building and final payments to contractors.

On recommendation of the Finance and Planning Committee, the directors voted to buy 45 12-inch lockers for the boys' physical education locker rooms at the new high school and that the unused nine-inch lockers presently there be advertised for sale. The action carried on a 12-1 vote on a roll call.

YOUTH CENTER REQUEST

The committee referred to the Finance and Planning Committee a request for a donation of school funds to the local Youth Center. The finance committee is to look into the legality of such a donation. The request came in a letter from the Youth Center Steering Committee and John Sette, a school director from Cumberland Twp. and member of the Steering Committee, answered questions in connection with the request.

A question was raised as to whether the Youth Center activities duplicate or compete with some of the activities, such as Saturday night dances, which have been carried on by the town recreation program.

Another finance committee recommendation was adopted turning over to the solicitor the matter of the stage curtains for the new cafeteria. The Pittsburgh stage firm was given the contract months ago but has failed to deliver and install the equipment.

ENDS 8-YR. REIGN

The joint school committee granted the Penn Laurel Girl Scout Council authority to use the junior high school auditorium March 16 for the annual Juliette Low rally. They also gave permission for use of the junior high school cafeteria by the Gettysburg Lions Club and a caterer to serve dinners to about 700 persons coming here June 30 on a "rail ramble."

Bills totaling $40,245 were ordered paid.

A policy on school attendance, which had been approved by the teacher and curriculum committee, was adopted by the directors. It provides circumstances under which pupils who have been absent extensively can or cannot graduate. It is intended to cut down on illegal or questionable absences, Supt. Riegler said.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Castro Plans To Go Back: After three departments of the government had individually and collectively told him that if there was any way on earth of keeping him from landing it would be employed, General Cipriano Castro, whom president and dictator of Venezuela, who goes as far as quarantine in New York on the French line steamship La Touraine, became convinced that this government did not want him here. As a consequence, just after a special board of inquiry had begun to ask him questions he announced that he will return to Hamburg on the first liner he can catch and there need be no more trouble about it.

High rents are reported in view of the Fiftieth Anniversary celebration. Rumor has it that the owner of one large first floor room has been offered $1,000 for the use of the place during ten days. It is desired, according to the rumor, for restaurant purposes.

Fined For Blocking Street: Eugene Miller, a Western Maryland freight engineer, was given a fine of $25.00 and costs of $5.50 on Friday by Squire Hill for blocking the railroad crossing on Carlisle Street for about twenty minutes on October 2. The information was laid by Officer Emmons. The Act of Assembly governing the offense declares that where the street is blocked the engineer shall be held responsible and subjected to a fine of $25. In case he is unable to pay, the railroad company shall then make the amount good. Mr. Miller has a number of friends in town who regret that he suffered from the action but the law governing the matter left no other course open. Contrary to general impression, no time limit is allowed for trains to stand and block crossings and the time apparently plays little part.

Improvements Planned: The trustees of the Presbyterian church have decided to put water and other improvements in the church. As soon as it can be done the front basement will be cemented and arranged for a reading and club room for the boys. A brotherhood has been organized in the church with the pastor, Rev. F. E. Taylor, as president and J. Allen Dickson, secretary-treasurer. At the meeting held for organization, an organ motor was discussed and Dr. W. M. Keel and George McClellan were appointed a committee to solicit funds to install an electric blower.

Brief Items: Mrs. S. C. Burger and Keith Burger have returned from the Lutheran Mission at Guntur, India.

L. M. Sletz has bought the Mervin VanDyke house at 31 East Middle street on private terms.

St. John's Baptist Church will be organized and set aside on January 19. The services will be held in the colored school house, corner Franklin and High streets.

Busy Time: Postmaster C. William Beales has rendered his report to Postmaster General Hitchcock on the working of the Parcels Post system for the first 7 days. So far, 534 packages have been mailed from Gettysburg, the postage on same amounting to $19.15. Five of these were insured. Two hundred and eighty two packages have been received here and delivered. Of these ten were insured. The volume of business sent by the system has exceeded all expectations and the Government is taking steps with a view of enlarging the postal machinery for the proper handling of the system.

The common bond that united all Cossacks was a love of freedom and disdain for social conventions. Most were Ukrainians and Russians, with a sprinkling of Poles, Lithuanians, Scandinavians, Serbs, Germans and Turks.

Today's Talk

DO THE THING YOU WANT TO DO!

Few people actually do the things they most want to do. Rather do they work towards ends that they know are neither going to bring them contentment nor happiness.

This is why there are so many dissatisfied people in the world. To fancy you want a certain thing means nothing. To know that you want it means everything — especially when you decide that inasmuch as you know you want it, you determine to get it. People should want things so deeply that the want itself uproots them until they get it.

The trouble with most people is that they want so many things that they cannot decide which one thing they want first — and so they go after nothing. One never gets anywhere by being aimless.

Do the thing you want to do, regardless of people, circumstances or — well anything under the sun!

Singleness of aim and effort accomplishes wonders. It really produces greatness and is the path alone that genius walks.

Our whole being must become plastic and we must mold into our task all that we are. We must be the thing we achieve. The world will probably have another name for it, but in the large sense, we are what we do.

The thing we do must be very important to us. It must, in a way, smother us with desire and a passion to overwhelm any previous effort along the same line.

You know your wants better than anybody else. Therefore you are able to follow them out to a more logical and decisive conclusion. Let somebody else play the sideshows. You play the big tent! Do the thing you want to!

Just Folks

CARE AND PLEASURE
Care has honors to bestow,
Pride and self-respect,
And the right to come and go
Always head-erect.

Care has worthwhile things to give
Such as wealth and fame
And, what may the longer live,
Health and sturdy frame.

Care, with all its stern commands,
Offers these in trade:
Knowledge and the skillful hands
With which things are made.

Pleasure, much more popular,
Offers hours of fun,
But its friends no better are
When the sport is done.

Pleasure very seldom makes
Any lasting gift.
Those who seek it, it forsakes,
Leaving them to drift.

Pleasure leaves men tired and worn
Often at the end,
And since burdens must be borne
Care's the better friend.

BELIEVE NEW CABINET WILL GET GOP OKAY

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. elect William W. Scranton's cabinet appeared today to have won endorsement of his party's Senate majority.

The Republican senators met Monday night to discuss the appointees and caucus chairman William Z. Scott, Carbon, announced that they would support the proposed department heads.

Such action would clear the way for confirmation by the full Senate later today and induction of the appointees shortly thereafter.

There was a possibility, however, that one of the names might be held up until next week.

SEE ONE HITCH

GOP sources said they would not support Henry D. Harral for secretary of highways until Harral agreed to drop his announced plan to appoint Robert H. Klucher York County native and superintendent of the highways department's Pittsburgh district, as his chief deputy.

Some Republican senators claimed that Klucher had played an active role in Democrat George M. Leader's successful campaign for governor eight years ago.

Two senators also were reported opposed to the reappointment of Dr. Maurice K. Goddard as secretary of forests and waters.

Goddard was appointed to that job by Leader in 1955 and reappointed in 1959 by Gov. Lawrence.

HAWBAKER OPPOSED

Goddard is one of three holdovers from the Leader cabinet whom Scranton planned to submit to the Senate.

The others are Health Secretary Charles L. Wilbur Jr. and State School Superintendent Charles H. Boehm.

Wilbur, like Goddard, was reappointed. Boehm has a four-year term, under the state constitution, that extends until September 1964.

Opposed to Goddard, according to Senate sources, were Sens. D. Elmer Hawbaker, Franklin, and Harold E. Flack, Luzerne.

SEE SOME HELP

Republicans will need the help of at least eight Democrats to confirm Scranton's cabinet.

It takes 34 members to approve an executive nomination and the Republicans have only 26 members.

However, Democrats expressed willingness to give the new governor his cabinet choices without too much fight.

It was anticipated they might question only Dr. Beecher Charney's qualifications to be state mines secretary.

NEARLY COMPLETE

The Democrats have stated doubts whether Charney would give the support to stronger controls over strip mining favored in both parties' campaign platforms last year.

With the appointment Monday of Richard M. Hornbeck of Pittsburgh as secretary of property and supplies, Scranton had filled every top department post with the exception of state police commissioner.

The Socialist support for Fanfani, which followed three days of debate, was qualified by sharp criticism of his Christian Democrat party's delay in passing Socialist-backed legislation to create regional governments in parts of Italy. Right-wing Christian Democrats fear the Socialists will again support their former allies, the Communists, for a leftist capture of power in some regions.

The Socialists' qualified support for Fanfani and the attack on his party was seen as an indirect warning that the premier, who leaves for Washington Tuesday, should be careful in his talks with Kennedy. The Socialists are neutrals and opposed to the North Atlantic Alliance to which Italy belongs.

GEORGIA TECH IS DOWNED BY MISS. STATE

By ED CORRIGAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

The clock struck midnight for Cinderella and brought Georgia Tech back to reality today.

The Yellow Jackets, who finished a horrendous tenth with a 4-10 record last year in the Southeastern Conference race, rushed through their first 11 opponents this season. They got by three of them by one point, three more by two points and one by three points.

So in a way, the witching hour was almost sure to strike. It chimed Monday night in Starkville, Miss. Mississippi State, the defending co-champion, downed the Yellow Jackets, 31-69. That left only Cincinnati and Loyola of Chicago unbeaten among the major teams.

BROKE WIDE OPEN

After a tight defensive battle

the first half, State broke the game wide open.

In other SEC games, Tom Baxley on a 20-foot jump shot with our seconds to go in overtime to enable Florida to upset Alabama, 69-67, and send the Crimson Tide down to their first league defeat,

Mississippi, 79-72.

Illinois, No. 3 in the country, barely got past Northwestern, 78-

Capt. Bob Starnes fired a desperation

60-footer. The buzzer sounded

But it plunked in and the Illini had won their fourth Big Ten

Howe Hits Fourth In Scoring Race

MONTREAL (AP) — Detroit's Gordie Howe, one of the National Hockey League's steadiest performers, has made a challenging burst in the league scoring race.

The veteran Red Wing pumped in five goals and added an assist during the past week, jumping into fourth place among the leaders with 40 points.

Andy Bathgate of New York retained the scoring lead, at 44 points, and Frank Mahovlich stayed in second, with 43. Each picked up two points last week. Johnny Bucyk of Boston is third at 41.

NCAA AND AAU ARE STICKING TO THEIR GUNS

By WILL GRIMSLY

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Both the AAU and NCAA were sticking grimly to their guns today as they prepared for the weekend meeting with Gen. Douglas MacArthur in an effort to arbitrate the controversy over control of U.S. amateur sports.

Nicholson, 23, commanded a bonus of $15,000 five years ago.

He has good speed, a fine arm and tremendous power. But he has not been able to hit. He batted .175 last season.

Hansen, 24, was a rookie rage in 1960 when he made the American League's All-Star squad. He hit 22 home runs, knocked in 86 runs and batted .255. Last year he batted .173. The Sox ignored his records of 1962 because he played part time while serving in the Army.

TOPS ON DEFENSE

Aparicio, although slumping to 241 last season, is 29 and far from through. He still rates as one of the game's top defensive shortstops.

"We are willing to discuss the issues but our federation is here to stay," said Charles (Chick) Werner of University Park, Pa., director of the newly-formed U.S. Track and Field Federation. "I don't think anybody is going to tell us we can't run our own affairs."

"We are hopeful of a settlement," said Louis J. Fisher of High Point, N.C., president of the Amateur Athletic Union, "but the prospect looks rather grim, particularly in the light of the NCAA's continued defiance of the President of the United States."

BOTH MUST GIVE

Indications are that both sides may have to give ground when they start airing their differences Friday morning at 10 a.m. EST in the hotel suite of the famed first-star general.

"The general is to serve as an arbitrator, not a mediator," said a MacArthur aide. "If the two sides cannot reach an agreement Gen. MacArthur will be expected to offer a formula, and the rival factions will be expected to abide by it."

The AAU is recognized by the various international federations as the governing body of U.S. amateur sports. The NCAA, with 600 colleges which provide a big part of the country's athletic talent, has demanded a stronger voice in the conduct of the amateur program.

Terminating the AAU's organization as faulty, the NCAA has set up rival federations in track and field, basketball and gymnastics. It has clamped a boycott on all AAU-sponsored events.

RATE GIANTS' SURGE SPORTS UPSET OF 1962

By JIM BECKER

Associated Press Sports Writer

The surge of the San Francisco Giants, who were given up for dead in the National League race only to battle back and defeat the heavily-favored Los Angeles Dodgers for the flag was voted the sports upset of the year in 1962.

The feat of the Giants, first to get into a playoff against the Dodgers when all appeared lost and then to win the playoff in the last inning of the third game when the cause again appeared to be irretrievable, was named the greatest upset by 58 of the 254 sports writers and sportscasters who participated in the annual Associated Press poll.

Another 62 voters picked the 10-7 stunner scored by the Miami of Ohio football team over Purdue of the Big Ten as the upset of the year.

GIANTS WIN 5TH

However, the Giants' charge appeared on more ballots and rolled up 226 points to 218 for the Miami victory.

The playoff victory for Jack Nicklaus in the U.S. Golf Open over Arnold Palmer was voted into the third spot. It was Nicklaus' first tournament victory as a pro.

Cincinnati's basketball victory over No. 1 ranked Ohio State in the NCAA championship took the fourth spot. The Buckeyes were favored despite a Cincinnati decision in the same tournament the year before, but the Bearcats finally made believers out of everyone.

In fifth spot was Detroit's 26-14 Thanksgiving Day decision over the previously unbeaten Green Bay Packers. It was the only game the Packers lost all year, as they swept to a 13-1 season mark and took the National Football League championship by beating the New York Giants 16-7 in the playoffs.

The Phillips said it will be a week before it is determined if an operation is needed on Bennett's left ankle.

Dr. Lachman, an associate of team physician Dr. Royal Moore, said Gibson should be healed in six to eight weeks. Bennett should be ready by opening day, general manager John Quinn quoted Moore as saying.

The Phillips said it will be a week before it is determined if an operation is needed on Bennett's left ankle.

STOORS, Conn. (AP) — Hugh Greer, 58, University of Connecticut basketball coach, died Monday of a heart attack in his home.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Veteran outfields Harvey Kuenn has accepted terms of a 1963 contract with the San Francisco Giants announced today.

CHISOX TRY
TO SOLVE 3RD
BASE PROBLEM

By JOE MOOSHIL

Associated Press Sports Writer

Chicago (AP) — Gamblers boldly the Chicago White Sox traded two established stars to Baltimore Monday in an effort to end a third base problem which has been haunting them for years.

The veteran Red Wing pumped in five goals and added an assist during the past week, jumping into fourth place among the leaders with 40 points.

Andy Bathgate of New York retained the scoring lead, at 44 points, and Frank Mahovlich stayed in second, with 43. Each picked up two points last week. Johnny Bucyk of Boston is third at 41.

The White Sox shipped Luis Aparicio, one of the game's great fielding shortstops, and outfielder Al Smith to Baltimore for shortstop Ron Hansen, relief pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm, outfielder Dave Nicholson and third baseman Pete Ward.

Ward was the key man in the deal so far as the White Sox were concerned. Hour before the trade was completed the Orioles tried to retain Ward but were told "no Ward, no deal."

HAS BEEN TOPS

Ward is 23. He batted .328 with Rochester last season with 22 home runs. He scored 14 runs and stole 17 bases in 19 attempts. He played the outfield last year primarily because the Orioles have no problems at third base, a post well guarded by Brooks Robinson.

Wilhelm, a knuckleballer who will be 40 this summer, has been one of baseball's top relief pitchers for years.

Nicholson, 23, commanded a bonus of $15,000 five years ago. He has good speed, a fine arm and tremendous power. But he has not been able to hit. He batted .175 last season.

Lawrence Recalls First Big Convention In 1912

Editor's note: His first and most exciting convention was his first, in 1912, recalls Gov. Lawrence in the concluding part of an Associated Press series based on the retiring governor's reflections about more than half a century in politics and government.

HARRISBURG, January 15 (AP) — "That was really exciting," Gov. Lawrence's eyes stared across space and time as his mind turned back to 1912 and his first national Democratic convention.

The retiring chief executive, who will be 74 in June, attended that meeting in Baltimore as a page, a protege of William J. Brennan, then Democratic leader in Pittsburgh.

It was the convention that nominated Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, after a long battle that extended the convention to 46 ballots.

FAMOUS NAMES

The events — and the famous and near-famous names involved — rolled through the governor's mind as he discussed the events and observations of his long career in the course of a two-hour interview.

The Pennsylvania Democratic chairman then — Lawrence has held the job since 1940 — was A. Mitchell Palmer of Easton.

Palmer, who was to become known as the U.S. attorney general under Woodrow Wilson, and the man who staged mass arrests of suspected subversives, was Wilson's floor leader in that early convention.

LONG BATTLE

"That was a long, drawn-out battle," Lawrence recalled, "and it was the first time in history that any candidate for the presidency ever got a majority of the convention and then wasn't nominated (Champ Clark of Missouri).

"Then, we had the two-thirds rule: you had to get two-thirds of the convention."

"Prior to that, every time a candidate would get a majority, then the other candidates would withdraw and just automatically give him the necessary two-thirds.

REFUSED TO QUIT

"In that situation (1912), the fight was so bitter and intense that some of the supporters of Wilson wouldn't give up.

"But it went over a weekend and they adjourned Saturday night until Monday.

"Gov. Wilson wired Palmer to withdraw his name.

"Palmer stuck the telegram in his pocket and never showed it to anybody; he didn't read it to the convention.

"Had he read it to the convention, the whole history of the United States would have been changed; Champ Clark would probably have been elected president."

BRYAN BOLTED

The turning point of that convention, in the Fifth Regiment Armory in Baltimore, was a speech by William Jennings Bryan, three-time candidate for President, who was a delegate from Nebraska, Lawrence said.

"The Nebraska delegation was instructed for Champ Clark, Wilson was the outsider, the progressive candidate, and Clark was sort of the conservative candidate at that time."

After withdrawals of other candidates gave Clark a majority, but not the two-thirds vote, Bryan and bolted his delegation's instructions, Lawrence said.

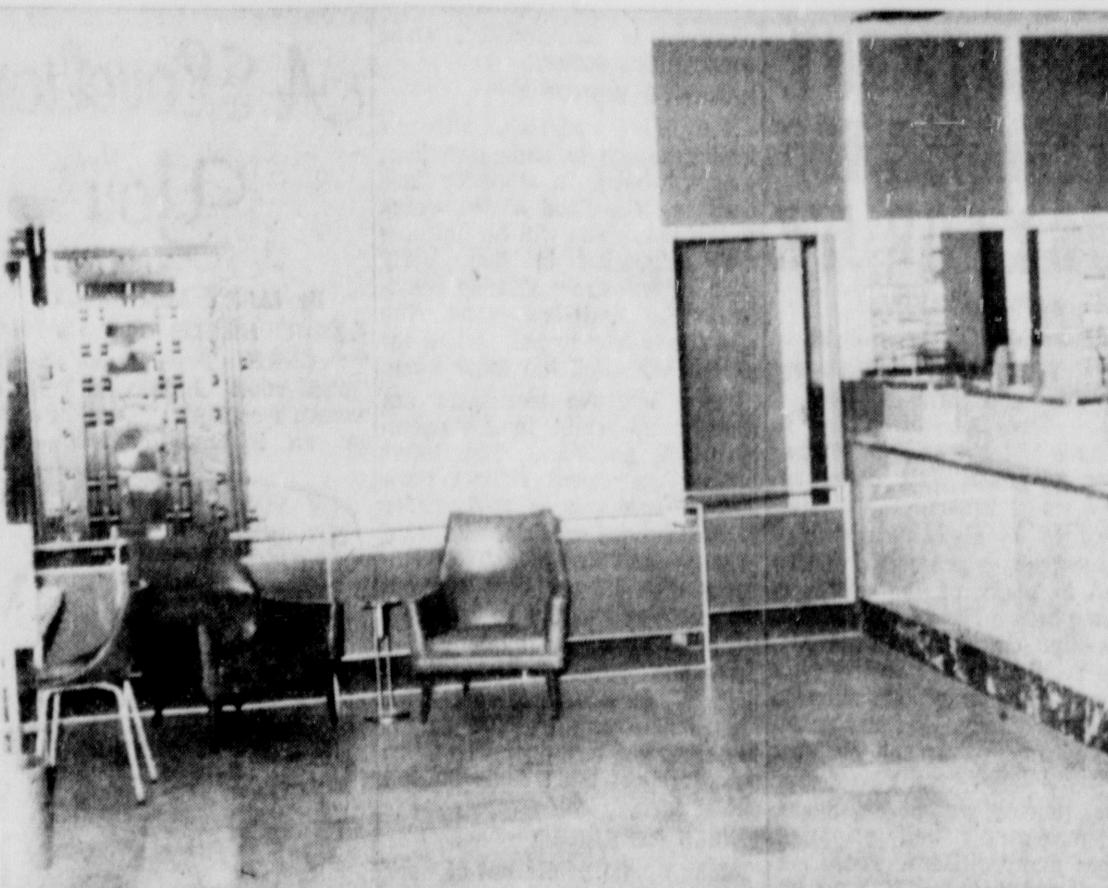

"He got up and made a famous speech in which he denounced Tammany Hall and Thomas Fortune Ryan, who was a very wealthy traction magnate of that period, and he dealt with the Belmonts, who were a rich family in New York with the Democrats.

TURNING POINT

"He denounced them and said that he would not vote for Clark after he got the support of these people . . . that was the turning point and that is what saved Wilson."

Lawrence said he considers Bryan "one of the great men in the history of this country."

He also lists him among the most colorful personalities he ever knew, including also Theodore Roosevelt, Al Smith, Franklin Roosevelt and the late U. S. Sen. Joseph Grundy, Pennsylvania Republican leader and founder of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Association.

LEADER WAS HAMPERED

A Republican also shows up in Lawrence's list of Pennsylvania governors who he thought did a good job. This was Gifford Pinchot, who served as governor two terms (1923-27, 1931-35).

The only other governor on his list was Democrat George M. Leader, whom Lawrence succeeded. Explained Lawrence: "We haven't been blessed with too many outstanding governors."

Leader, he said, "had the ability, the brains, the capacity and so forth, (but) he was hampered in a number of ways. He wasn't able to bring out the best that was in him."

Lawrence described Pinchot as "a good governor in some respects," but added a reservation about the Republican's sincerity.

WARD ASSESSOR

Lawrence disclosed that he, himself, "just drifted right into (politics) naturally."

"As just a bit of a kid in my home they would always discuss politics. My father was in it in a very minor way and my grandfather on my mother's side was in it in a minor way in the ward we lived in there (Pittsburgh)."

"He (grandfather) was a cobbler by trade and owned a shoe store, and he was the ward assessor and did things of that kind."

"So, as long back as I can remember hearing anything, it would be about politics. Then, when I went to high school, I went to St. Mary's High School, which had a two-year commercial course."

HAS U.S. JOB

"I graduated there at the age of 14 and got a job as a stenographer in this law office and there Mr. (William J.) Brennan had quite a law practice and was also the Democrat leader . . .

"So, you see, at 14 and 15 I used to go to the conventions and make stenographic reports and things of that kind."

After he turns over the governorship today to Republican William W. Scranton, Lawrence has ahead of him a job as chairman of President Kennedy's committee on equal opportunity in housing.

Aside from that:

"Well, I'm going to Pittsburgh and continue on in the redevelopment of Pittsburgh, which the leaders in that movement are anxious that I do."

"I have a little insurance business there that's been going to the devil since I've been here. My former partner died, Jimmie (James P.) Kirk. I've got some young fellows running it there."

"I'll pick up some of the threads there, and I hope to get around to dictating some information for a book on politics and one on the Pittsburgh renaissance, if I get down to it . . ."

Changes In 1962 Tax Law Affect Incomes Of Few

EDITOR'S NOTE — The income tax filing ordeal is here again. Here is the first of a series of five articles designed to make the taxpayer's chore easier. This one tells who must file, forms to use and how to figure deductions.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Midnight Monday, April 15, is the deadline for your 1962 income tax return.

Report only taxable income, not the nontaxable kind like Social Security payments. Examples of both kinds are given below.

Changes in the law on 1962 individual income are very few and won't affect most people.

You must file a return—to get a refund—if your income was too low to be taxable but tax was withheld from it.

You must file a return, even though you owe no tax, if:

1. You were under 65 and had taxable income of $600 or more. This includes children, parents are responsible for them.

2. You were 65 by Jan. 1, 1963, and had taxable income of $1,200 or more.

SOCIAL SECURITY TAX

A self-employed person must pay a Social Security tax of 4.7 per cent on self-employment income from $400 to $4,800. This is in addition to whatever regular tax he pays, like everyone else, on taxable income over $600.

A man over 65 must pay this Social Security tax on self-employment income even though he is drawing Social Security payments.

But there are limits on how much income such a person can have and still receive Social Security payments. This can get complicated. If you have doubts about your case, contact your nearest Social Security office.

Be sure (1) you enclose with your return all the W-2 withholding statements from your employer or employers; (2) you list your Social Security number on your return. There is a $5 penalty for failing to list your number.

Many special questions are answered in the 14-page instruction sheet which the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) sends taxpayers. It includes both a tax table and a schedule for figuring your own tax.

BOOKLET AVAILABLE

Still better, though it costs 40 cents, is the 144-page instruction booklet—"Your Federal Income Tax"—put out by the IRS and sold by your district director of internal revenue.

Organizations paying interest or dividends of $10 or more—starting Jan. 1, 1963—will report these payments to IRS. Through this IRS can check 1962 returns to catch those who didn't report dividend or interest income received in 1962.

There are two tax forms for making returns: 1040 and 1040A. Anyone, no matter how big or little his income, can use Form 1040. Most people will use Form 1040A—a punchcard—because it's simpler, if they meet the requirements.

You can use it only if:

1. Your income was under $10,000 and was entirely in wages from which tax was withheld, plus not more than $200 in dividends, interest or wages from which tax was not withheld.

2. You accept the standard deduction of 10 per cent—up to a limit of $1,000—allowed people using form 1040A without itemizing.

Otherwise, you must use form 1040. On this one, if your deductions actually exceed 10 per cent of your taxable income, you can claim them in full but must itemize to do so.

USE TAX TABLE

If you use form 1040A, but your income was under $5,000, you can find your tax in the tax table or let the IRS collector figure it for you. He'll send you a bill for any tax still owed or send you a refund if you're entitled to it.

In this case the 10 per cent deduction is already allowed for in the tax table. You don't have to claim it.

If you use form 1040A, but your income was $5,000 or more but under $10,000, you figure your own tax and take, without itemizing, a 10 per cent deduction for personal expenses up to a limit of $1,000.

EMPLOYMENT PROBLEMS TOP LIST FOR JFK

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — President Kennedy could have pictured a happier State of the Union to Congress and the nation Monday if unemployment just come unstuck.

What to do about it will play a large part, expressed or under cover, in many of the proposals to come before this session of Congress—tax cutting, youth corps, trade relations with foreign competitors, government spending to spur the economy, worker retraining programs, labor and business regulatory laws.

The unemployment problem, both present and potential, touches many citizens. Those out of work and their families are hit the hardest. But many others worry lest they be next—in spite of the high totals of employment. This worry underlies most of the management-labor strife now under way, or threatening to break out of luck.

SKILLS REQUIRED

Many of the adults out of work also find that the demand is for skills they do not have. The age of space and electronic automation promises the trend will continue.

All of this will add to the pressure to do something to combat the sticky hard core of unemployment. Labor has advanced its schemes aimed at spreading the available work among more people and increasing the purchasing power of those in the lower income brackets. Business has put in its pitch for more profits to be used for investment—to come from higher prices or lower production costs and tax cuts and less government regulation.

HAS PROGRAM

The administration has its own program for spurring economic growth to make more jobs for a growing labor force. And even before Congress convened the President warned:

"If we do not take action, those who have most reason to be dissatisfied with our present rate of growth will be tempted to seek short-sighted and narrow solutions—to resist automation, to reduce the work week, to shut out imports or to raise prices in a vain effort to obtain full capacity profits on undercapacity operations."

PHILADELPHIA HIT BY TRANSIT STRIKE TODAY

By H. L. SCHWARTZ III

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Some 5,600 transport workers struck the vast Philadelphia transit system today stopping every bus, trolley and subway operating exclusively within the city.

Talks were called today, but chances of a quick settlement were clouded.

Police, experienced by one system-wide stoppage and 13 lesser walkouts since 1955, adopted emergency measures to cope with traffic jams.

PICKET LINES

The only public transportation available for the half million riders within the nation's fourth largest city were regular commuter lines of the Pennsylvania and Reading Railroads. Their combined stops within the city, however, are limited. Bus and trolley service of other companies continued in the suburbs.

BOOK COMEDY IN HARRISBURG

The Harrisburg Community Theater has scheduled "The Matchmaker" as the next attraction of the season, beginning January 19 and running the following two weekends!

The "Matchmaker" is a comedy-farce by Thornton Wilder, best remembered by theater lovers for his Pulitzer prize winning plays, "Our Town" and "Skin of Our Teeth." One of Broadway's best hits "The Matchmaker" played for 14 months in New York after a year's run in England.

Set in New York City in the 1880's the play is replete in the headlong madness that has been seen only in Marx Brothers movies!

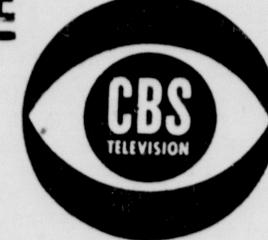

Director Peter Carnahan said, "It's the old under-the-table and out-of-the-closet type play with a lot of common sense mixed in with its slapstick shenanigans." Charm Sorbello, returning to the Harrisburg Community Theater after living in Paris for two years, will be starred as the matchmaking widow of the title, and Dave Ansell will be seen as a wealthy merchant for whom she is supposedly trying to find a wife, while actually eliminating all likely candidates to set things up for herself.

Quill earlier predicted a five week strike. Neither city officials nor Robert Stier, president of the PTC, would haard a prediction. Federal mediators, in on the talks for two months along with city and state officials, called both sides back to the bargaining table today. Both sides said they would attend, but no one appeared optimistic.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not let this happen to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Hold false teeth more firmly. They feel more comfortable, does not sour. Get FASTEETH at drug counters everywhere.

STEEL TALKS OPEN MONDAY

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The steel industry's high-level negotiators have begun a series of accelerated meetings to exchange ideas on mutual problems.

Both sides stressed at the outset of the Human Relations Committee meetings Monday that the talks should not be construed as contract negotiations.

But they indicated that joint recommendations would be made where possible to assist in the possible reopening of collective bargaining talks.

Members of the United Steelworkers Union currently are working under an agreement in which either side can reopen negotiations in certain areas this summer.

Various items under wage incentives, medical care, job classification and outside contracting of work are expected to come under discussion at the committee meetings. Several of the group's subcommittees have been meeting periodically and will report to the main body at these sessions.

R. Conrad Cooper, vice president of U. S. Steel Corp., and David J. McDonald, president of the USW, who are the top contract negotiators, also head the Human Relations Committee.

BURNS FATAL

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Burns suffered in a New Year's Day fire at his home have been fatal to Raymond Lupine, 60, of the city's North Side. He died Monday in Allegheny General Hospital.

Director Peter Carnahan said, "It's the old under-the-table and out-of-the-closet type play with a lot of common sense mixed in with its slapstick shenanigans." Charm Sorbello, returning to the Harrisburg Community Theater after living in Paris for two years, will be starred as the matchmaking widow of the title, and Dave Ansell will be seen as a wealthy merchant for whom she is supposedly trying to find a wife, while actually eliminating all likely candidates to set things up for herself.

Director Peter Carnahan said,
